Term 1 Week 9

Friday, 29th March 2019

Principal's Message

Dear Parents and Carers,

Wow we are already at the end of week 9!

Thank you to everyone who came with crazy hair today. It was great to see so many students participating in this important fundraiser. All the money raised will go to the Leukaemia Foundation.

Work on the top playground has finished and it is fantastic to see so many students playing on the grass. Having synthetic grass on the top playground not only makes the school look great but also allows the students to have a place to play on all year round. The school and the P&C are also getting quotes for synthetic grass and seating for the GLA so that there will be another area for the school and community to use for sport.

We have a lot of students who have made representative sides for both sport and dance. This is a great achievement for our students and I wish them good luck.

We have recently put up no smoking signs on the gates. There is a 4 metre no smoking zone around the school that needs to be followed by all our community members.

School photos have been moved to the 30th April, which is the first day back from the holidays. We will put reminders on Facebook through the holidays so that people don't forget. There was a clash with representative sport on the original date. Moving the photo day allows everyone to be a part of school photos.

Thank you to all the students and staff for their hard work this Term it has been a very busy term and the staff and students have achieved a lot. I am very proud to be the principal of Winmalee Public School!

I want to wish everyone a safe and relaxing holiday. The last day of term for staff and students is Friday 12th April and students return on Tuesday 30th April.

Thank you
Kate Ford

Dear Parents and Carers,

The Premier's Reading Challenge (PRC) is available for all NSW students in Kindergarten-Year 9, in government, independent, Catholic and home schools.

The Challenge aims to encourage in students a love of reading for leisure and pleasure, and to enable students to experience quality literature. It is not a competition but a challenge to each student to read, to read more and to read more widely.

The Premier's Reading Challenge is an initiative of the NSW State government.

All students who enter, and successfully complete the Challenge, will receive a Premier's Reading Challenge certificate for that year.

If your child is in 3-6 and taking part in the 2019 Premier's Reading Challenge, it is now under way and runs through to 30th August. During this time, they will need to read 20 books from the Premier's Reading list. This can include 5 free choice books.

Kindergarten, Year 1 and Year 2 will complete the challenge during Library visits with Mrs Wilkinson and Mrs Holdsworth.

Students can enter their reading online.

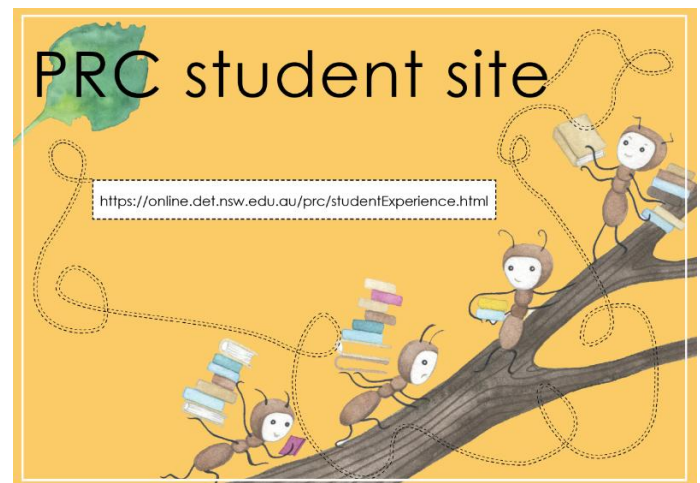

A list of books for each level and the rules are available on the website:

If you have any problems or questions please feel free to contact me.

WINMALEE GREEN THUMBS

At last the temperatures are cooling so we are having a rush on to take cuttings, put in young plants and move others around the grounds to new homes.

Food Gardens

Our leafy greens are growing nicely and we'll start harvesting next week. Our beetroot didn't grow (as the seeds were too old) so we will put in a different crop next week.

School grounds

Last newsletter I mentioned the Australian native blue-banded bee and the teddy bear bee which are often around the garden bed visible from morning lines. I have told some children, who are there early in the morning, about them and it's been lovely to have them report back what they have seen.

Serenity Space

I have topped up various parts of the space with straw and manure which will gradually decompose over the coming months. By spring we shall have rich beds to plant in. The lambs ears continue to go crazy so we will move them around soon so the kids can utilise their seats again.

The outdoor classroom will be underway by the end of term, if not, then the beginning of term two. This will be next to the Serenity Space and consist of sandstone blocks and logs for seating. I'm hopeful this will be a greatly utilised space to observe, consider and be inspired by nature. The design has been done by Mrs Willingham, her students and me and we've tried to include several of the student's requests...some were easier than others...think bridges, ponds and secret room.

Warm regards
Garden Clare

Uniform Shop

The Uniform Shop will be closed for normal trading during the next two weeks. We are still taking orders, they will be processed by some wonderful volunteers and sent home with your children once filled.

Year 6 Jackets

We should be receiving the year 6 jackets next week. For those that have paid when they come in they will be sent home with your child. Anybody wishing to pay please place your cash in an envelope with your child's name on it and hand in at the front office for our volunteers to fill. Online payments cannot be accepted as this is separate to the school.

Pedlars Parade

The Winmalee K-2 Pedlar's Parade will take place on Thursday 4th April, 2019.

This Pedlar's Parade is the annual fundraiser for K-2. The parade will start at 9:30am in the hall followed by the sale of 'goodies' in the 'Marketplace' (courtyard area) until 11:00am. All parents and carers are invited to attend.

K-2 children are to come to school in their fancy dress costume with a tray, box or basket of items to sell. When arriving in the morning, children may put their 'goodies' on their desks in the classrooms.

The children will parade in their costumes for all to admire. After the parade, children will return to their classrooms to collect their 'goodies' and carry them to the 'Marketplace'. Any Kindergarten parents wishing to help children carry items can meet outside their child's classroom after the parade.

Years 3-6 children are also invited to participate in the parade by dressing up and donating a gold coin to support this major K-2 fundraiser.

Costumes can be as simple as a cape or as fancy as a robot. Everyone is always impressed by the creativity displayed on the day!

Sale items can include anything from home-made banana muffins to fairy wands; fancy pencils to book marks; little bead bracelets or necklaces; or maybe some little bags of healthy organic popcorn, whatever your imagination can come up with.

*Please have items of an appropriate size for individual purchases,

*Please include the cost on each item (10c, 20c, 50c, $1, etc)

When preparing foods please be mindful that many students at our school are allergic to peanuts. If you are sending food products to sell, please attach a list of ingredients to the container.

EDUCATION/LEARNING

Failure! What a genius idea!

by Michael Grose

A leading Victorian Independent school actively encourages its students to fail, which is an absolutely genius idea. Ivanhoe Girls Grammar School held a Failure Week to teach students that making mistakes is a crucial part of learning. Teachers shared their personal stories of failure and students from prep to Year 12 learned challenging activities such as abstract painting, juggling, reciting poetry and dancing. At the end of the week they displayed their new skills in front of each other with the emphasis being on stuff ups rather than perfection.

For many students making errors and struggling to get things right will feel uncomfortable. But that's the whole point.

Kids need to fail more if they are to succeed

Traditionally, schools and, in recent years, parents have excelled at celebrating student success. "Top marks", "Dux of the school" and "Perfect score!" are the types of aspirations that teachers and parents have for kids. But to many students academic success means "Don't stuff it up!", "No mistakes please!" and "Get it right!"

It's been widely reported that Australian kids are anxious, perfectionistic and risk-averse. They just don't feel comfortable with failure. Who could blame them as we've hidden failure and disappointment from them for too long.

There's been the perception in recent years, that failure damages people. This is to the detriment of young people's future success. Failure is an integral part of learning anything significant, challenging or worthwhile. Resilient learners realise that they don't always get things right the first or even the second time but with effort and practice you'll master skills, find solutions and gain the knowledge you need to succeed.

If handled properly, failure provides kids with the feedback to succeed that helps them achieve excellence. Yes, kids need positive feedback but only when it's deserved. When we tell a child everything is wonderful, when in fact, their work is mediocre at best, we give them a false sense of achievement.

Failure takes bravery

I've long been a fan of encouragement. That is, parents and teachers need to focus their comments on the processes (effort, contribution, improvement) of what kids do. Encouragement places the locus of control onto

We're a Parenting Ideas school

parentingideas.com.au/schools

parenting * ideas

the child, which is essential for resilience. That doesn't mean that we avoid giving a child feedback if their work or behaviour isn't up to scratch. By all means, we should inform kids when they need to lift their games, but it needs to be done respectfully and with sensitivity, if the feedback is to be taken on board.

But the real strength of encouragement is hidden in its French derivative 'to give heart'. It takes a brave soul to make a mistake sometimes, particularly when others may be watching.

Failure needs a supportive environment

It's all very well to encourage kids to have a go but they won't stretch themselves unless mistakes are truly accepted by the people that matter to them. A child won't speak up in class when he's unsure of the answer if he knows his classmates will laugh at his errors. Similarly, if kids are to take more learning and social risks they need to know that mistakes won't be thrown back in their faces at home by parents or siblings.

Five simple ways to encourage kids to fail and celebrate errors:

1. Model failure: Next time you break a plate when emptying the dishwasher, avoid negative language ("What a klutz!") or catastrophising ("This is the worst thing ever!"). It's a plate. Stuff happens.
2. Tell stories of failure: We tend to be nostalgic of the past and tell kids of the good stuff when we talk about our childhoods. But kids love to hear the warts'n'all stories of the difficulties you faced and stuff-ups you made as a kid. It makes you more human and also gives them permission to do the same.
3. Encourage them: Develop a vocabulary around effort, improvement, contribution and enjoyment. Be your child's cheerleader but don't avoid giving feedback when necessary.
4. Tell and show kids how to improve: Feedback is always best when it has a teaching focus. So next time you pick up a child on their poor schoolwork or untidy bedroom, make sure you remind them how to do it right.
5. Provide the time to fail and get it right: Modern teachers and parents are time poor. Crowded curricula and busy lifestyles make us less tolerant of failure. But as anyone who has taught a young child to do up his or her shoelaces will know, some things can't be rushed. Time and patience can be your best assets when helping kids to handle learning challenges.

Failure doesn't sit comfortably with many of us, but it's an essential element to success. The idea of a school setting aside a week to encourage their students to fail more may challenge our perceptions of the education process. But it's a very timely, very smart idea that should be adopted and adapted by schools and families everywhere.
